

JOB DESCRIPTION

LEAN EXPERT

Job Description

The Lean Expert conducts Lean studies to achieve results for the new projects and in the framework of P-20 projects (cost reduction).

He manages the Lean activities / workshops in all plants worldwide.

He defines and creates the Lean manufacturing group standards.

He is responsible for the training and coaching on the Lean principles, methods and tools of all the actors to improve the Lean culture within the Group.

He is the Owner of the OPEX (Operational Excellence) pillar of the SMRC Way Road Map.

He leads, trains and coaches the network of Hoshin champions and OPEX Factories managers at Group level.

Desired Skills and Experience

Job Skills

Master degree with significant experience in the automotive industry

Very good level in Lean / Toyota Production System, strong understanding and use of Lean principles, methods and tools: Value Stream mapping (VSM), continuous flow, leveled pull system, Time & Movement Studies, Line Balancing, Layout Study, Hoshin/Kaizen Workshop, ...

Good practice of English language.

Specific Skills

- Adaptability/Rigorous
- Good interpersonal skills
- Autonomy
- Leadership

Frequent travel (about 50% of the time)

To apply, please send your complete file to: recharnes@reydel.com